- Transmittal of Seven "Blood Chits", under separate cover, for Use of Contract [redacted]

25X1A2g

Reference: [redacted] 1957

1. Being transmitted under separate cover are seven so-called blood chits, Form XM 21-3, for use by the contract [redacted] of [redacted] until a sterile edition is available. 25X1A2g

25X1A2g

2. The sterile version will not contain the phrase reproduced on the current copies being sent to you "My government will reward you". This will be translated to read "You will be rewarded". It is felt that to connect [redacted] with the use of these chits would be contrary to the theory of plausible denial.

3. Upon receipt of the sterile blood chits, [redacted] is requested to destroy the editions now being transmitted. 25X1A2g

4. There is some difficulty being experienced in Headquarters in obtaining pointie talkie books, but as soon as they are available they will be transmitted also. In the meantime, it is suggested that the language books sent [redacted] some time ago for the use in operations over [redacted] be utilized as appropriate and that the [redacted] language books be procured locally for use with the survival equipment at the discretion of the [redacted] Commander.
